Re: Two Requests for Withdrawal as Attorney and Change of Correspondence Address

Dear Sirs:

Enclosed please find the following "Request for Withdrawal as Attorney/Agent and Change of Correspondence Address" for applications: No. 09/364,343, filed 07/30/1999 (parent case); and No. 11/179,217, filed 07/12/2005 (C.I.P.), as more fully detailed in the Request forms attached.

As explained in my attached Requests, I am in process of retiring from the practice of law. I now reside in France. This also creates problems of communication with clients and delays in responding to Office Actions, etc.

The parent case (09/364,343) has been rejected by the Patent and Trademark Appeals Board and subsequently abandoned. However, in the unlikely event that there is any future correspondence, it should be directed to the applicants, as noted in my request.

The C.I.P. case (11/179,217) has not yet received its first office action. Examiner estimates about five months before such action is issued. As noted in that Request, I wish the correspondence address to be directed to the inventors (not c/o myself) until they retain new counsel in the United States.

If possible e-mail me at the above address as shown on my letterhead when the office has made a decision on my requests. If this is not possible, please make your decision to the following address on my behalf:

Gary W. Smith, Esq.
Pasternak, Attorneys at Law
